Pre- Approval of Tendering and Contracting (Only to Greek beneficiaries!!!)

The Unit B2' of the MA in cooperation with Joint Secretariat of the Programme will draft a Table of projects of the Beneficiaries located in Greece, which are either infrastructure or supplies or services and which are going to be tendered or contracted within the year or within the next twelve (12) months.

The selection of sample of tenders/contracts to be checked will be based on Table referred to the above, which shall include all the individual elements of the relevant project (i.e. project title, budget, tender procurement budget, type of award etc).

Folder submission by the Beneficiary

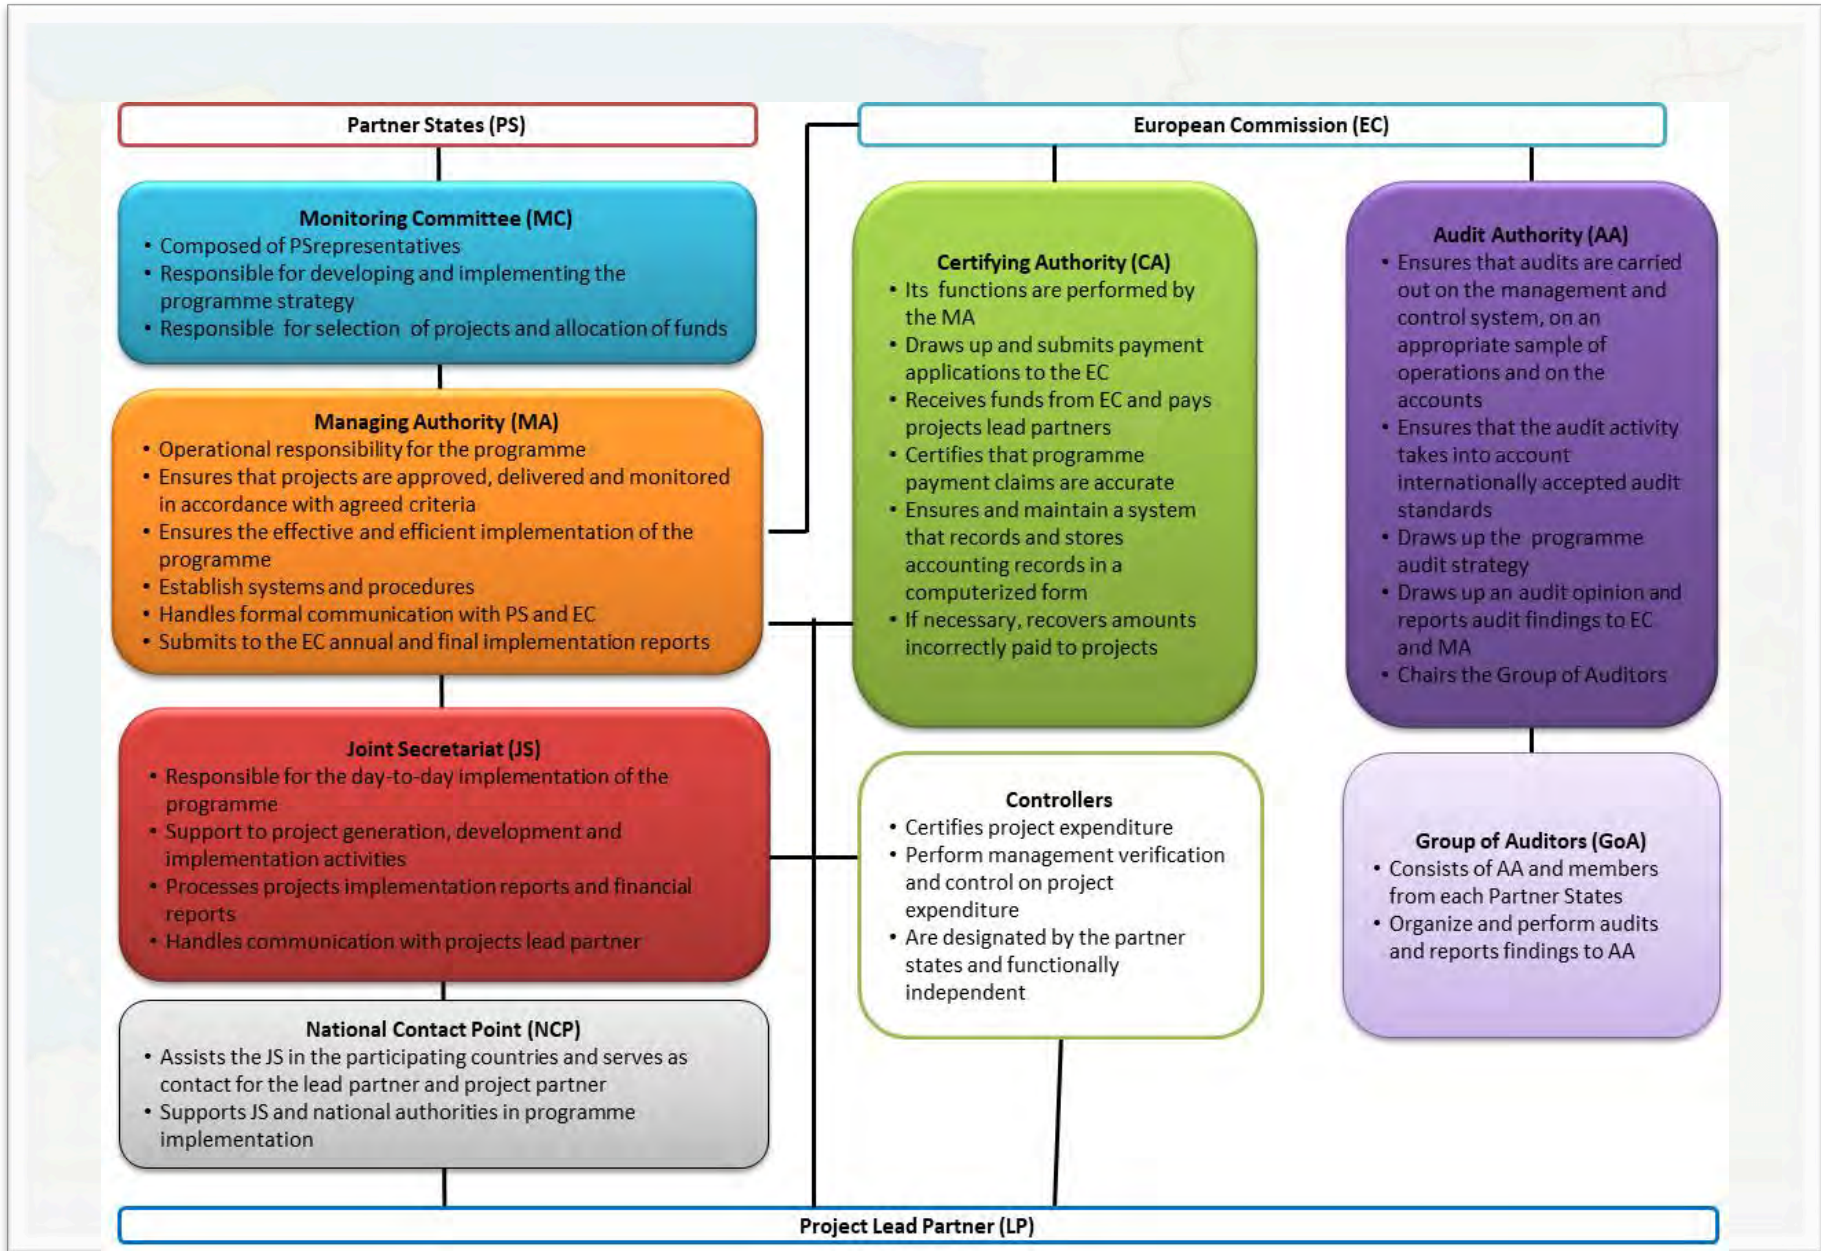

The Beneficiary, whose project (work, service or supply) has been selected for control based on the aforementioned methodology, submits a folder to the MA (Unit B2'), prior to the tender procedure, that includes all necessary data and documentation for checking the legality tendering.

Folder Examination

The MA (Unit B2) checks the project's tender documentation based on the institutional and legal framework and the EU and national eligibility rules. The results of the control are recorder in Procurement Checklists.

Ex-ante approval of tender procedure

Based on the Procurement Checklists, the Unit B2' of the MA provides its agreement or its agreement under conditions that the Beneficiary must meet or its negative opinion regarding the submitted data. The opinion of the Unit B2' of the MA shall be communicated to the Beneficiary and copied to Unit C' of the MA and the JS of the Programme. The Unit B2' of the MA provides its opinion within an exclusive time limit of thirty (30) working days after receiving the relevant data, according to the Ministerial Decision 110427/EYΘY/1020/01-11-2016 (YPASYD), as in force. After the expiration of the time limit without the MA providing its opinion, it is considered that it has provided its agreement.
